Help Children Discover the Glorious Gift of Easter. Rhythm, rhyme, and soft illustrations teach the miraculous Easter story. The Lent and Easter season is a special time for the family to read the Easter story together. Parents of beginning readers look for Easter books that reinforce reading skills while helping children learn about Easter. The Easter Cave from Concordia Publishing House (CPH) draws children ages 4 to 7 into the Easter story. Line by line and rhyme by rhyme, the story builds, covering often-overlooked details. Children learn about Joseph of Arimathea, the crowing rooster, and the crown of thorns. Through repetition and colorful illustrations, the joyful story unfolds on every page until it reaches the empty tomb, reminding families of Gods greatest gift and the Good News to share. This is Carol Wedevens third book with CPH, following Just in Time Esther and Noahs 2-by-2 Adventure from the Arch Books series. She has numerous other titles including In Peril at Sea, A White Woman Doing Nothing in the Tropics, My First Bible Story Board Books, and The Christmas Crib That Zack Built. Carol has also contributed to Kid Builders and My Turn to Care.
