The deacon shouted, Deliverance comes with a price. You should not be tempting your spirit; you cannot continue to be a part of the world when God has delivered you from it. If you keep hanging around Emerald and Destiny, you'll be back shooting up again. Three friends bonded by their Christian upbringing are forced to choose between religion and the realities of life. Torn between good and evil; together they realize that there is a fine line between loyalty and intimate betrayal, love and hate and honor and deceit. Experience the laughter and the tears of these friends as they struggle to take refuge in their religion or to take vengeance into their own hands. Will they fall into temptation or be delivered from evil?
