Painter Fabia Tory has much to be grateful for – a carefree childhood, a precious family and an enchanting island home – until her marriage comes to an unexpected end. Taking solace in her work and the company of her dog Molly, Fabia starts her life all over again in Sydney's inner west. Several years later, she meets Lewis, a man she falls swiftly and deeply in love with. Brimming with happiness, they explore Sydney and honeymoon in Italy and Paris. Their adventures continue in Central and Northern Australia, Spain and Morocco. Then one day comes a phone call that changes everything. Struggling to cope with the loss of the man she loves so dearly, Fabia becomes a pilgrim of sorts, walking out her grief and pain along the Camino de Santiago.

A heartfelt love story suffused in kindness, humour and travel that will dust you in happiness and touch you with loss.
