The Seduction of Lexie Dane Soliel De Bella

Lexie Dane has it all, a good job, handsome husband, and loving home, but there's something missing in her life, like three years of which she has no memory. When she was twenty-one, she awoke in Chicago to learn she'd gone missing from a Missouri school when she was eighteen. With no family still alive back home, she decided to stay and start her life anew, yet always hoped that one day she'd discover what had happened to her. That day comes with an Internet ad for an adults only club and the owner's picture that sparks a visceral reaction she can't explain. To see if he has answers to her lost memories, she and her husband must join the club and subject themselves to sexual situations beyond their wildest imaginations. What she learns will destroy her marriage and set her on a dangerous road back to her missing past.
