Anika, an independent woman, gets upset on the eve of her 30th birthday about her personal status in life. While she has achieved a lot on the professional front, she has nothing to show on the personal side. She drives her car aimlessly around the city and bumps into a stranger whom she decides to give a lift to. She takes a liking to this stranger and a drop turns into a five-day adventure. Does she fall for him? Does he try to take advantage of her? Does Anika finally find the answer to her personal problems? Misadventure@30 is all about fun on the road with the stranger who Anika decides to trust at face value.
