Influencing Children to Become World Changers Joy Dawson

International Bible teacher Joy Dawson shares biblical priorities for those who are involved in discipling children. "Pursuing God with intensity is contagious. When the children see that . . . it becomes a strong incentive to follow suit." Dawson shares her personal experiences with her two children and gives examples of other disciplers of children, showing readers how to

- mentor by example
- know God's priorities by studying His character, and mentor His priorities to children
- find kids that will provide positive peer pressure
- treat kids as friends without losing authority
- disciple while facing the unique challenges of single-parenthood
