Masters of the Seven Rays: Their Past Lives and Reappearance Phillip Lindsay

The subject of the Masters has always been highly controversial, ever since Madame Blavatsky announced their existence to the world at the end of the 19th century. Since then there have been claims and distortions around their identity and function in the world, making a travesty of the whole subject. It is hoped that a more balanced perspective is presented here, that can provide accurate and concise information to newcomers of the Ageless Wisdom as the subject of the Masters is one that many seekers first come across.
