Capitalismo y nihilismo (Nuestro tiempo) (Spanish Edition) Santiago Alba Rico

La presente obra reúne quince textos orgánicamente emparentados, inscritos todos ellos en un mismo horizonte teórico: el análisis y denuncia de lo que el autor llama el "nihilismo espontáneo de la percepción" como ley y función subjetiva del sistema de destrucción generalizada conocido bajo el nombre de "Capitalismo". Trata de definir el campo antropológico de una comunidad espontánea de la que todos somos al mismo tiempo transmisores, beneficiarios y damnificados, y de cercar la monstruosa normalidad de "nuestra" cultura occidental o, más exactamente, de nuestra "civilización" capitalista. El espectador, el consumidor, el turista el artillero, el banquero: este libro se ocupa de la potencia nihilizadora de una percepción integral -síntesis "en el ojo" de una economía y una tecnología- que sólo sabe "apropiarse de hombres y cosas, que los construye rutinariamente como "objetos de exterminio" y que, más radicalmente, los despoja de existencia al mismo tiempo que los mira (como el piloto que sólo fija un blanco para hacerlo desaparecer).
